(S) to possible participation in EPCOT/World Showcase by the Soviet Union, Poland and PRC. [redacted] referred to proposal [redacted] at EPCOT.

b1

b7E

The following is being presented at this time for perusal and study by FBIHQ and WFO as it represents current status of EPCOT/World Showcase development.

To reiterate, EPCOT/World Showcase is currently under construction and will open on 10/1/82, at a total cost of $800 million dollars, the largest private construction project currently underway in the United States. It is anticipated that when completed, the total cost of EPCOT will exceed $1 billion dollars.

EPCOT is located on the WDW complex, Lake Buena Vista, Florida, 20 miles west of Orlando, Florida, and will spread over 600 acres.

Numerous large corporations i.e, General Motors, Exxon, Kraft and American Telephone and Telegraph will participate in development of EPCOT's future world project. Other businesses, i.e. Alfredo, The Original of Rome, and British Airways plan to take part in the international tourist attraction.

Attendance during the first year of EPCOT operation is expected to exceed 22 million visitors.

Concerning the development pertaining to foreign country participation in EPCOT/World Showcase, the following is set forth:

(S) On 8/13/81, [redacted] who is in a position to furnish information of this type, advised that EPCOT is currently under construction and is scheduled to open 10/1/82. The following countries will have permanent pavilion in phase 1 of EPCOT:

b1

Canada
France
PRC (partial)
Italy
Japan
United Kingdom
West Germany
Africa (WDW presentation)

advised as follows regarding EPCOT planning and development:

At the present time, plans call for a total of 18 countries to be represented in the World Showcase at EPCOT and will be located around the first lagoon. Nine countries are now scheduled to operate permanent pavilions including the PRC, although that pavilion will only be partially completed at the time of EPCOT opening.

The PRC at this time has only entered into a contract allowing film crews to photograph various scenes throughout the PRC that will be incorporated into a movie "China The Beautiful" to be presented in a 360 degree circle-vision theatre which is the main attraction of the pavilion.

EPCOT pavilions are owned by WDW and are being leased to foreign countries by square footage.

According to [] pavilions will be manned and operated by individuals of the same national origin as their respective country. WDW totally supports that philosophy and has inaugurated a World Showcase Fellowship Program (WSFP) which encompasses countries or associations sponsoring students to assist in operating the pavilions. A $15,000 fee will be charged whereby the WSFP student will be required to work 30 hours per week and devote another 10 hours per week in education and training.

b6
b7C
b7D

Housing for those students will be provided on the WDW complex as part of an international village being planned that will accommodate approximately 200 to 250 students. It is anticipated 10 WSFP students will be assigned to each pavilion.

Concerning additional countries that will participate in EPCOT/World Showcase, [] advised approximately 2 years ago contact was established with the Soviet Union whose response at that time was lukewarm. The Soviets indicated they wished to make a political statement if they occupied a pavilion but apparently were "turned off" when WDW officials responded no country is being permitted to make a political statement in connection with use of their pavilion.

There are currently negotiations in various stages taking place with Israel, Spain, Brazil and the Netherlands concerning their entry into the World Showcase. Yugoslavia has also made inquiry to that possibility.

Poland, who at one time expressed a definite interest in taking part in EPCOT, has not expressed any recent interest as it appears that country is currently going through a major political change.

~~SECRET~~

TP 199-NEW

On 8/13/81, [] (Protect Identity Per Request), [] WSFP, advised the WSFP is designed to provide young people from many foreign countries the opportunity for education and cultural exchange. The WSFP is part of the program sanctioned by the International Communication Agency (ICA) and is designated as a J1 visa program with the understanding participating students will not only be allowed to study while in the United States but will be working at EPCOT. That student will not be considered a regular employee as he or she will be sponsored by a company, agency or government.

[] commented that in addition to WSFP students operating the pavilions, part-time jobs will be made available to foreign nationals studying at colleges and universities throughout the United States. Jobs will also be offered to resident aliens and first generation Americans, in order to enhance the nationality of respective foreign pavilions.

[] stated at this time details concerning manpower needs at the PRC pavilion are not known, noting PRC officials have been made privy to the WSFP.

On 9/30/81, [] (Protect Identity Per Request), [] Manpower Planning and Placement, advised that to his knowledge the PRC pavilion will be partially opened on 10/1/82, and will have a 360 degree circle-vision presentation "China The Beautiful", which depicts life in the PRC. Restaurants and shops as part of that pavilion will open at a later date.

At the present time it is anticipated 6 or 7 employees will operate the PRC pavilion. Those employees will either be WSFP students or U.S. citizens of Chinese origin. Specific details concerning those employees as well as additional employees needed in the future are unknown at this time.

[] advised there will definitely be an international village located on the WDW complex that will provide housing for WSFP students.

OBSERVATIONS:

Tampa is currently submitting above under terrorism aspect relative to current FCI responsibilities of the FBI as all of the countries planning to be represented at EPCOT have terrorist groups operating within or outside their borders, and it is felt EPCOT as well as WDW will not be immune to that type of activity.

Full impact and resulting ramifications of EPCOT operations at this time is not fully known, however, it is recognized and anticipated that problems involving protection of foreign officials (PFO) and hostile intelligence service (HIS) activities will possibly evolve and place additional demand on the Tampa Division, specifically, the Orlando Resident Agency.

(S) Tampa in the near future will present a more detailed overview of EPCOT/World Showcase and a specific proposal incorporating recommendations concerning implementation of a viable program to assist the FBI in meeting its responsibilities relative to terrorism activities, PFO demands and

Epcot to get 100 youths from abroad

By LYNN PHILLIPS
Sentinel Star

In September, about 100 youths, ages 18 to 24, will leave eight foreign countries to come to the World Showcase at Walt Disney World's Epcot Center for a year of work, study and cultural exchange.

Handpicked from as far away as China, the students will participate in the World Showcase Fellowship Program, a program under study for more than two years, and one that has sent Disney officials on trips to Washington, D.C. — to provide for the necessary work-study visas — and to Europe for student interviews.

This is not, Disney officials concede, the easiest way to staff a project.

But then David Kanally, manager of the World Showcase Fellowship Program, emphasizes that officials are not merely staffing a project.

Kanally said that the company knew early that an important element of the World Showcase section of the Epcot Center would be to have people who live in the participating countries help staff the pavilions. Representatives of the countries already living in the United States, he said, just wouldn't do.

One of the overall goals for the Epcot Center is for it to be a "permanent international people-to-people exchange," he added. And the fellowship program is, according to Kanally, a means to this end.

The international students Disney is lining up to staff the World Showcase pavilion won't be the first to come to Disney. The company ran two pilot fellowship programs during the past two years.

During the first year, eight international students, all participants in the American Field Service program, were included in the fellowship program. They lived with the families of Disney employees and stayed seven weeks.

In the summer of 1981, the fellowship program included 15 foreign students and two American students. Students in the program, which lasted 10 weeks, lived together in a community of four-bedroom prefabricated houses south of the theme park, near Kissimmee.

The development has a swimming pool and recreation building.

Eventually, Kanally said, Disney will construct a permanent international village on Disney property for the fellowship participants.

Kanally said that the group of participants in the upcoming fellowship program, will include 10 to 15 representatives from each country included in the World Showcase section of the Epcot Center — Mexico, China, Germany, Italy, France, Japan, the United Kingdom, Canada and the United States.

From D-7

The foreign students were selected from a nomination list that included 20 to 30 names from each country. Kanally said the International Association of Students in Economic and Commercial Sciences, a student group based in Brussels, Belgium, provided the list of nominees.

He said the company is working with the Embassy for the Peoples Republic of China in Washington, D.C., to select the Chinese students.

Disney officials — who looked for students 18 to 24 who were single, had good academic records, were willing to make a year's commitment to the program and who had friendly, outgoing personalities — traveled to Europe in January to interview all the nominees.

Kanally said the company has not yet decided how it will pick American program participants.

Disney's fellowship program format is broken down into these categories: learning, working, living, recreation and travel.

Participants will live together in the temporary international village used by program participants last summer, with no more than one representative of each country in each house.

They will spend about 30 hours a week working in the World Showcase pavilions filling key "guest contact" jobs. There will be a total of about 400 employees "on stage" in the World Showcase and another couple of hundred "back stage."

Fellowship participants will be paid a "stipend," which Kanally said has not been finalized, that will be large enough to cover any living expenses.

The learning segment will include international cultural studies, which will require that students make presentations on different aspects of their native cultures, and future studies, which will involve students attending seminars and discussions on the subjects of Epcot's Future World.

And it will include business management studies. According to Kanally, students will take courses taught by Disney management in resort management, merchandise management, food and culinary arts management, entertainment, employee relations, finance management and marketing.

Students will be able to participate in recreational and social events, and before returning home at the end of the fellowship program, they will get the chance to travel to different parts of the United States, Kanally said.

It will be up to the individual schools to determine how much credit each participant should receive for the fellowship training, Kanally said.

The fellowship program officially begins September 1. Between now and then, Kanally said Disney officials will be trying to interest companies in sponsoring the students participating in the fellowship program.

Disney films 'China experience' for Epcot

UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

PEKING — Walt Disney Productions said Saturday it will bring the "China experience" to the United States this fall in a wraparound circle vision film just completed at a cost of $1 million for Disney World in Florida.

At a reception to celebrate the completion of the film, the "Wonders of China," producer-writer Jeff Blyth said, "We have created for an American audience, or an audience from any part of the world, a China experience."

The film will be shown Oct. 1 at the opening of Epcot Center, an international array of pavilions at Disney World.

"Circle vision is a 360-degree theatrical experience," Blyth said. "It utilizes nine cameras and nine projectors, and we show the film in a circular theater where the picture is all the way around the audience."

Chinese co-producer Tian Shiguel said the film cost $1 million.

The Chinese pavilion, where "Wonders of China" will be shown, is a re-creation of Peking's Temple of Heaven.

Scenes from the film shown at the reception suggested the "Wonders of China" stresses China's scenery rather than its people.

In cooperation with the China Film Co-production Corp., Disney Productions started location scouting a year ago.

It took 20 weeks of intermittent filming, spread over eight months to catch the different seasons on film. The final sequences were finished in Peking last week.

9/30/81, a great deal of progress has not been made regarding the finalization of staffing needs for the various foreign World Showcase pavillions of EPCOT scheduled to be operational 10/1/82.

Regarding participation of the Peoples Republic of China (PRC) in World Showcase, [] commented that at this point, staffing needs have not been defined; however, negotiations are currently underway by WDW with a merchandising business contact in the PRC regarding those needs. He anticipates that initially six employees from the PRC will staff the PRC pavillion that will be partially opened 10/1/82. The PRC World Showcase pavillion operation at that time will be limited to a circle vision presentation, a film depicting life in the PRC. Shops and restaurants associated with the PRC pavillion are planned and will be opened at a later date.

b6
b7D

Concerning the initial six PRC employees, [] feels those individuals will be students who will be part of a World Showcase Fellowship Program (WSFP). The WSFP encompasses countries or associations sponsoring students to assist in the operation of World Showcase pavillions. A $15,000 fee will be charged whereby the WSFP student will be required to work 30 hours per week and devote another ten hours per week in education and training.

[] remarked he was under the impression students of the WSFP program will be issued J-1 (exchange visitors) visas.

In addition to PRC representation, [] advised other countries totally committed to open World Showcase pavillions include Japan, Mexico, Canada, England, France, Italy, and Germany. France, Italy, Japan and Mexico will furnish management personnel and employees in connection with operation of restaurants at their respective pavillions. WDW employees will staff the pavillions in respect to operation of the main attraction and shops. Staffing of the World Showcase pavillions of the remaining countries has not been firmly established.

[] stated WDW will attempt to screen all employees staffing the various World Showcase pavillions relative to cosmetic appearances as WDW feels it is vitally [] commented that at this juncture, it is anticipated that a majority of the World Showcase pavillion employees will not come on board for training until September, 1982.

REQUEST OF THE BUREAU

Pursuant to previous conversations between Tampa Supervisor [] and Bureau Supervisor [] Terrorism Section, Division Six, it is requested liaison be established with U. S. Department of State (USDS) in an effort to ascertain the type of visa status that will be granted to individuals affiliated with the WSFP program as described above as well as full-time employees from foreign countries assigned to the EPCOT/World Showcase. USDS decision to designate official status to foreign employees affiliated with EPCOT/World Showcase will have a direct bearing as to the degree of responsibility the FBI may have relative to Protection of Foreign Officials (PFO) statute.

FBIHQ will note EPCOT/World Showcase is not temporary in nature but a permanent and long-standing attraction that will continue to stand and incorporate additional foreign countries into its operation. Spain, Venezuela, and Israel have reached final agreement with WDW officials and will be involved in the second phase of EPCOT development.

Tampa wishes to point out the magnitude of EPCOT/World Showcase and the enormous impact it will have on the central Florida area, i.e. anticipated 22 million visitors, both national and international, during the first year of operation as well as having foreign nationals being employed and housed in the area.

Tampa would appreciate input by FBIHQ relative to direction of investigative responsibilities involving counter-intelligence matters, terrorism activities, and PFO considerations emanating from EPCOT's presence in the central Florida area, specifically in regard to logistically handling of the overall responsibility under supervision and direction of Division Five or Division Six at FBIHQ.

BUairtel dated 5/5/82 clarified that foreign country participants involved in EPCOT will not be entitled to "protectee" status, therefore, the Criminal Investigative Division at FBIHQ will not be the primary division involved in captioned matter, with the Intelligence Division coordinating the inquiry. Tampa concurs with position taken by FBIHQ and will remain alert and expeditiously disseminate information to the Criminal Investigative Division that may be of specific interest.

The following is a current update relative to the status of the PRC and other foreign participants at EPCOT:

On 5/21/82, [redacted] (PROTECT IDENTITY PER REQUEST), [redacted] Walt Disney World (WDW) advised that as of that date six individuals from the PRC, whose identities at present are not known, will initially be assigned to the PRC pavilion under auspices of the WSFP. He commented that at this juncture he could not estimate the total number of PRC Nationals that eventually will be affiliated with EPCOT.

[redacted] advised that WDW has been dealing directly with PRC officials regarding PRC pavilion staffing needs and in fact, [redacted] was scheduled to meet with the PRC Ambassador to the United States during the week of 5/24/82 at Washington D. C. concerning those staffing needs. He stated training will commence 9/1/82 for EPCOT employees.

[redacted] related that PRC will initially operate a circle-vision theatre with other shops and restaurants anticipated to be constructed at a later date.

[redacted] commented WSFP students, including PRC representatives will now be housed at Snow White Village, located on Highway 1092, Kissimmee, Florida. He stated there are approximately one hundred double wide mobile homes that will house college students as well as foreign representatives actively employed at EPCOT.

Asset reported WDW has leased all of the mobile home units for a one year period guaranteeing the owner 100% occupancy. [redacted] who lives on the grounds is the resident manager.

For information of Knoxville and New York, EPCOT is currently under construction and will open on 10/1/82, at a total cost of $800-million, the largest private construction project currently underway in the United States. It is anticipated that when completed the total cost of EPCOT will exceed $1-billion.

EPCOT is located on the WDW complex, Lake Buena Vista, Florida, 20 miles west of Orlando, Florida, and will spread over 600 acres.

Numerous large corporations, i.e. General Motors, Exxon, Kraft, and American Telephone and Telegraph, will participate in the development of EPCOT's future world project. Other businesses, i.e. Alfredo, the Original of Rome, and British Airways, plan to take part in the international tourist attraction.

Attendance during the first year of EPCOT operation is expected to exceed 22 million visitors.

Concerning the development pertaining to foreign country participation in EPCOT/World Showcase, the following countries at this juncture will have permanent pavilions in Phase I of EPCOT:

Canada
France
PRC
Italy
Japan
United Kingdom
West Germany
Africa
Mexico

In addition to the above-listed countries, negotiations are in various stages taking place with Israel, Spain, Brazil, and the Netherlands. Yugoslavia has also made inquiry.

At the present time, plans call for a total of 18 countries to be represented in the World Showcase at EPCOT including the 9 countries listed above.

The PRC in its pavilion will incorporate a movie "China the Beautiful" to be presented in a 360 degree circle-vision theater.

The World Showcase Fellowship Program (WSFP) was inaugurated by WDW and encompasses countries or associations sponsoring students to assist in operating the various pavilions at EPCOT. The WSFP is part of the program sanctioned by the International Communication Agency (ICA) and is designated as a J-1 visa program with the understanding participating students will not only be allowed to study while in the United States but will be working at EPCOT. That student will not be considered a regular employee as he or she will be sponsored by a company, agency, or government.

Re Knoxville airtel 3/26/82 and NY airtel 4/27/82, captioned "PRC Participation at the 1982 World's Fair."

Referenced NY airtel indicates Poon is known as an associate of James Ying, a prominent New York Chinese businessman and close acquaintance of PRC officials at the PRCMUN. [REDACTED]

On 5/6/82, [REDACTED] the 1982
World's Fair, described Poon and Ying as very astute businessmen whom he would not trust. He said they were personally responsible for PRC participation in the fair. He noted they were involved in the Seattle World's Fair where they were known as the only people who ever came out ahead of another businessman there who apparently took advantage of everyone with whom he dealt.

On 6/17/82, [redacted]

[redacted] advised there is only one person operating the Chinese Pavilion that he [redacted] and that is K. W. Poon. He stated that Poon is a New York businessman and an American citizen who owns and operates several New York restaurants. He added that it was through concerted efforts of Poon that Knoxville was able to attract the Chinese to the World's Fair. Poon unfortunately is an opportunist who has no political loyalties one way or the other and is just out to make a fast buck. He stated that Poon has repeatedly violated his contract with KIEE in several ways. He stated that at one point Poon was advising friends of his to avoid the long lines of the Chinese Pavilion by coming into his restaurant and he would sneak them into the back door of the pavilion. Asset advised this was in direct conflict with the terms of Poon's contract. Also, Poon is not running a clean restaurant. He stated the food is overpriced, again, because Poon is out for the fast buck and it is of low quality; in fact, the food is of such low quality and is so unclean that the KIEE had to close the restaurant for a week to get Poon to "clean up his act".

b6
b7C
b7D

Asset stated it was unfortunate KIEE had to use a man like Mr. Poon, but by way of explanation, one must understand the way Chinese businessmen work. He explained that there is a 2,000 year old tradition in China that is based possibly on class. He stated the Chinese are perhaps the best businessmen in the world and as a result there are many business families in China who have amassed great wealth and position. Because of their wealth and position, it is not traditional for them to make contacts on their own with people they consider to be of lower class, i.e. anyone who is not Chinese such as Occidentals. Poon is nothing more than a go-between, but he is a rather powerful go-between because of his money and expertise and contacts with people in China. He stated it was therefore necessary that KIEE utilize Poon in order to induce China to join the World's Fair at Knoxville.

Asset advised that the first inkling that he had that this was taking place was in February of 1981. At that time a Chinese couple who resided in San Francisco, who he believes are [redacted] attended the beginning of the negotiations for China to come to the World's Fair. He stated that Ying is an associate and business partner of K. W. Poon. Apparently, [redacted] from San Francisco were the beginning of the traditional go-betweens between the Chinese business community and the westerners.

Asset further explained that it was also necessary to have someone in this country with money to help the Chinese open a pavilion here. He stated that the PRC has no international currency and that is another reason that Poon or a man like him was needed. He reiterated that Poon's primary interest in the whole operation was to make money.

AT THE WORLD'S FAIR, EXPO '82,
KNOXVILLE, TENNESSEE
MAY 1, 1982 - OCTOBER 31, 1982

This communication is classified ~~SECRET~~ in its entirety.

The information presented in this document was gathered from contacts with several assets and U. S. Persons during the period February 1, 1982, through August 12, 1982. This information is presented in narrative form to aid in readability as in many cases the information was compiled from interviews of more than one source. When information is presented that was gathered by only one source, then that source is identified at the end of the narrative. All sources have furnished reliable information in the past or were in a position to furnish the information.

PRELIMINARY CONTACT WITH PRC REPRESENTATIVES:

The Board of Directors of the Knoxville International Energy Exhibit (KIEE) had initially hoped to attract the Soviet Union and China as exhibitors to the 1982 World's Fair. When the Soviet Union failed to commit its presence at the fair, KIEE felt that if China did not participate the 1982 World's Fair would fail as an international exhibition. Much effort was therefore expended to make the fair attractive to the Chinese.

b1
b3
b6
b7C

Two major problems were encountered at the outset. One, the PRC has no international currency. Therefore, it would be necessary to find someone or some company with the necessary capital to back a Chinese exhibit. Secondly, there is a 2,000 year old tradition in China that is based, possibly on class, that Chinese are perhaps the best businessmen in the world and as a result there are many business families in China who have amassed great wealth and great position. Because of their wealth and position, it is not traditional for them to make contacts on their own with people that they consider to be "a lower class," i.e., anyone who is not Chinese, such as occidentals. For this purpose, the Chinese have developed a business system wherein they use go-betweens to help bring together business deals. These go-betweens are of "lesser class" than the Chinese businessmen, but it is their duty to help consummate business transactions. It is a fact that there are some families in China who are nothing but brokers and have amassed huge fortunes doing nothing but being go-betweens in business deals.

As far as the World's Fair was concerned, these two problems were solved by one man, Mr. Kin W. Poon (PAN Chien-hua), a New York businessman and an American citizen who owns and operates several New York restaurants. Mr. Poon not only acts as a go-between in business deals between the Chinese and American or other Chinese businesses, but he also has a great deal of wealth to furnish capitalization for a Chinese exhibit. Ultimately, it was through the concerted efforts of Mr. Poon that Knoxville, Tennessee, was able to attract the Chinese to the World's Fair. (All of above information furnished June 17, 1982, by KX T-1.)

On February 20, 1981, a delegation from the PRC, consisting of four members, came to the United States to discuss the Chinese participation at the World's Fair. After spending two days in Nashville, they arrived in Knoxville on February 22, where they remained until February 25, 1981. This delegation was made up of the following individuals:

The two senior members of the group [] and [] were officials who had previously signed the letter of intent with the president of KIEE. [] is an official who is [] spoke English as did [] who acted as the group's [] is [] who works for the coal industry in China and was selected to act [] for this group due to her energy related field. The president of KIEE had also met with [] when he was in China. All members of the delegation were described as brilliant, humble, and appreciative people, whose interest was in bettering the living conditions of the people in China by promoting tourism and exposing Chinese culture through participation in the 1982 World's Fair. They indicated that there is a chronic housing shortage in China, but there is no shortage of food. They had no outside contacts other than those persons who had been previously arranged to participate in their tour and they stayed together at all times. They retired early and they arose early in the morning. Similarly, there were no long-distance telephone calls charged to the rooms of any of the four delegation members (KX T-2 March 11, 1981).

In addition to stops in San Francisco, the delegation visited Seattle, Washington, where they took a tour of the Seattle World's Fair site. While in Seattle, a Memorandum of Understanding was signed by the delegation with the President of the KIEE, which restated items previously included in the Letter of Intent which had been signed in October, 1980. This Memorandum of Understanding allows thirty days for final negotiation regarding Chinese participation in the fair. It is noted that this thirty-day period could be expanded. The delegation indicated with the change of U. S. Presidents, they were unsure as to whether the invitation issued by President Carter was still valid. It was agreed to request President Reagan to reissue the invitation although the delegation was assured that their invitation was still valid. The Memorandum of Understanding verifies their intention to participate in the fair and their plan to offer specific items in their exhibit. One of these items is a 100-meter section of the Great Wall of China, which they plan to leave in Knoxville, Tennessee, after the fair is completed. At this point in time, the delegation was still looking for American corporations with ties to the PRC to assist in funding for their participation. (KX T-2 March 11, 1981).

The purpose of this visit was for the delegation to inspect the Chinese pavilion exhibition site and to make sure that everything was ready for the arrival of their workmen and exhibit (USPERS #1 March 18, 1982).

By mid-March, 1982, it had been learned that there would be a total of 41 Chinese employees handling the merchandising and the food concessions for the Chinese pavilion at the World's Fair. Thirty-eight of these individuals were projected to arrive from China on or about April 8, 1982, with the rest arriving at a later date. The restaurant employees and the setting up of the restaurant were being handled by Mr. Poon. James Ying, born March 3, 1914, in Shanghai, China, currently resides with his wife at Sands Point, Nassau County, New York. He is the owner of three gift shops, the Temple Garden restaurant, and the Great China International Travel Tours. He is a prominent ethnic Chinese restaurant businessman, who is a close acquaintance of several prominent officials posted at the Peoples Republic of China to the United Nations (PRCMUN). He is currently president of the Sino-American Chamber of Commerce in Chinatown and a financial advisor to the Hip Hsing Association. During May, 1981, he pledged a large sum of money to the Society of American Chinese Association (SACA), thereafter, becoming an honorary president of SACA.

During the past several years, KX T-3 has reported that James Ying has acted as an intermediary on behalf of the PRC Government in efforts to purchase property in New York, Houston, and San Francisco to house future Chinese commercial and/or diplomatic establishments. In addition, Ying has participated in several World's Fair events in New York, 1964, Canada, 1967, and San Antonio, Texas, 1968.

By April 5, 1982, the PRC delegation had rented apartments at the Timbercrest apartment complex on Elderberry Drive, Knoxville, Tennessee. These duplex apartments exist side by side and are numbered consecutively with consecutive odd numbers from 8101 through 8117. The PRC delegation no longer resides at the Falling Leaves Court address, but [REDACTED] have moved in to apartment [REDACTED] telephone [REDACTED]. The remaining apartments will be occupied by twenty-eight of the Chinese workers who will arrive April 11, 1982, and the ten or eleven who will arrive April 22, 1982. This would bring the total PRC delegation to forty-one or forty-two by the end of April (KX T-2 April 5, 1982).

Inasmuch as the Chinese had never participated in an international exposition of this nature before, they had made no allowances for transportation. Consequently, a considerable amount of time was spent by members of the delegation with the directors of KIEE to solve the problem of transporting the Chinese workers between Elderberry Drive and the fair site. The problem was solved in this manner:

The majority of the Chinese personnel are transported by bus, which is operated by Skyline Transportation, Knoxville, Tennessee. The bus picks up the Chinese personnel at their residence at about 9:00 to 9:30 a.m., daily and transports them to the fair site. The bus returns and takes them back to their residence after the fair closes at 10:00 p.m., each night. Additionally, KIEE provides a driver and a station wagon for the two highest ranking Chinese personnel, [REDACTED] of the Chinese pavilion, and [REDACTED] the Public Relations man and interpreter, would also be allowed to accompany [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] with them in the station wagon (KX T-2 May 6, 1982).

The Chinese pavilion employees work thirteen to fourteen hours per day seven days a week. The workers do not leave the pavilion even to eat the midday or evening meal. On a rotating basis, one or two of the employees stays at the Elderberry residence where they cook for the remaining employees at the pavilion. At lunch time, the station wagon is sent to pick up the food and transport it to the pavilion.

The rigors of this fourteen-hour schedule by the workers proved to be difficult. The Chinese had failed to bring enough people to handle the pavilion to allow for shift changes. Therefore, all employees were working from 9:00 to 9:30 each morning until 10:00 to 10:30 each evening, seven days a week with no time off. To alleviate this problem, KIEE has provided additional transportation which will allow five employees at a time to go to the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, forty miles from Knoxville, Tennessee, to relax and enjoy themselves. Each day five different employees are allowed to make this trip in this manner; each group of five employees is able to go to the mountains approximately once each week.

[] speaks fairly good textbook English, as long as one speaks slowly and distinctly to him. He has the habit, however, of pretending to understand a conversation when, in fact, he does not. When someone speaks too rapidly and he cannot understand, he begins nodding his head in the affirmative and stating, "Yes, yes, yes," when, in fact, he understands nothing of the conversation.

Although [] is [] of the pavilion, it is he who actually manages the operation at the pavilion.

[] is described as being very friendly and very courteous to all those who have met him. He is a highly intelligent person and, at all times, very diplomatic.

[] has only 25 people to operate the pavilion itself and they work 12 hours a day, 7 days a week. Perhaps this is the reason that all of the individuals involved with the pavilion seem to concern themselves only with operating that pavilion. They do not want to become involved with any outside activities. Consequently, they avoid many of the fair-related social functions. The ones they do attend are those that they feel require their presence, such as luncheons and parties hosted by KIEE. Also, only [] or [] and one or two of the other top pavilion people will attend these functions.

[] is the [] of the Chinese pavilion. He is somewhat formal and is shown the most respect by those under him. He has no perceptible duties except to remain at the pavilion and do nothing. Furthermore, he speaks no English and is generally accompanied by an interpreter when he leaves the pavilion. However, it is believed that [] understands English fairly well. Furthermore, [] tends to remain in his office at the pavilion and remains in the background socially. It has further been noted that some Chinese employees feel very ill at ease when in the presence of []

Kin W. Poon (PAN Chien-hua) is a New York restaurateur and business associate of James Ying, a prominent New York Chinese businessman. Poon is also acquainted with PRC officials at the PRC Mission to the United Nations in New York City. Both Poon and Ying are very astute businessmen, but Poon has been described as not being trustworthy. It is noted that Poon and Ying were involved in the Seattle World's Fair where they had the dubious distinction of getting the best of a local Seattle businessman who had the notorious reputation of taking advantage of everyone he dealt with (KX T-2 May 6, 1982).

(USPERS #3, [redacted])

Poon, although it was through his concerted efforts that Knoxville was able to attract the Chinese to the World's Fair, is unfortunately an opportunist who has no political loyalties one way or the other and is just out to make a fast buck. Poon has repeatedly violated his contract with KIEE in several ways. At one point, Poon was advising friends of his to avoid the long lines in the Chinese pavilion by coming in to his restaurant that is adjacent to the pavilion and he would then sneak them through the back door of the pavilion. This procedure was in direct conflict with the terms of Poon's contract. Also, Poon is not running a clean restaurant. The food is overpriced and is of low quality. In fact, the food is of such low quality and is so unclean that the KIEE had to close the restaurant for a week to get Poon to "clean up his act" (KX T-1 June 17, 1982).

[redacted] is a male staff member at the PRC pavilion who is with the CCPIT. [redacted] is also afforded the privilege of being able to use the car that is assigned to the Chinese pavilion. He does all of the shopping for the group and acts as [redacted]. [redacted] speaks little English and always takes someone else with him when shopping. The shopping trips usually include Kroger's and the Far East Company, Kingston Pike, Knoxville, Tennessee, for groceries. [redacted] position within the pavilion hierarchy is such that he does not have to take a turn at nightly guard duty nor does he have to prepare food for the pavilion employees. Both of these duties are rotated among the pavilion employees except for [redacted] and one or two others. (KX T-4 June 9, 1982).

[] is a Chinese male, who is an [] and associated with the CCPIT. [] is apparently the [] man. He is married with one child and is the most Westernized of the pavilion employees. He has a very good sense of humor and kids around with the chauffeurs for the pavilion station wagon. The chauffeurs have asked him to go out drinking with them, but he states that he could not do that. It was also noted that a woman tried to get him to go to the Strohaus, a beer hall on the fair site, but he refused (KX T-4 June 9, 1982).

[] is listed as a staff member of the Chinese pavilion. However, he is responsible for [] of the pavilion and is introduced to visitors as the []. He has been present during all meetings that the commissioner general of the pavilion has had with the Pinkerton Agency, Knoxville, Tennessee. Pinkerton has the contract for providing guards for the pavilion. Observations of [] in the pavilion indicate that he does little except stand around, however, he is shown respect by other employees (USPERS #3, August 11, 1982).

PRC DELEGATIONS WHICH HAVE VISITED EXPO 82:

Like moths to the flame, the red circular flame symbol for Expo '82 has drawn many PRC and PRCEMB delegations to Knoxville, Tennessee. In some instances, the delegations were not "official" in that they represented vacations for PRC Embassy officials from New York and Washington, D. C. In other cases, the delegations were extensions of trips by visiting Chinese that had originally been scheduled for other parts of the United States with an excursion to the World's Fair as a side trip. In some instances, the delegations were arranged specifically to visit the World's Fair.

On April 30, 1982, [] and his [] flew from Washington, D. C., on April 30, 1982, to Knoxville, Tennessee. The purpose of their travel was to attend the World's Fair and to visit various Tennessee Valley Authority projects in Knoxville and other regions of East Tennessee. They returned to Washington, D. C., by air on May 9, 1982. [] is the [] of the American Bureau of the Xinhwa News Agency, Peoples Republic of China, and his [] is a correspondent for that news agency (USPERS #4, [] April 29, 1982).

b7D

All press personnel visiting Expo '82 on opening day, May 1, 1982, were required to register with the Communications Department of the Knoxville International Energy Exposition (KIEE). A review of the registration list indicates that [] and [] registered and received press credentials to visit the fair on May 4, 1982 (USPERS #5, a KIEE official, May 10, 1982).

Although [] attended the opening of the World's Fair, his main purpose in coming to East Tennessee was to visit the Tennessee Valley Authority as he is doing an article on TVA for the Xinhwa newspaper. On May 4, 1982, [] and [] were taken to Norris, Tennessee, to the TVA Forestry Office.

b6

[] was apparently interested in the Forestry Program there. However, [] showed no interest in the program. He indicated that the main thrust of his article was going to be the history of the TVA Program as a whole (KX T-5 May 4, 1982).

[] and [] stayed with a local family in Knoxville, Tennessee, and the family did not know [] or [] beforehand. It is believed that [] obtained the room through KnoxVisit, a computerized listing of rental rooms for the World's Fair. Furthermore, it is not believed that [] remained in the Knoxville area after May 4 or 5, 1982, but continued on his visit of TVA facilities as far away as Mayersville, Mississippi (KX T-5 May 4, 1982).

Between January, 1982, and the opening day of the fair, May 1, 1982, []

[] made several visits to Knoxville, Tennessee. On May 1, 1982, [] and a group of representatives from the Chinese Embassy in Washington, D. C., attended the opening of the fair. The group included AN Dong, Minister/Counselor for Commercial Affairs; CHAI Zemin, Ambassador, and []

The group also included some individuals identified only as correspondents for Chinese newspapers. Inasmuch as [] a correspondent for the United Nations Bureau of the New China News Agency was to have attended the opening ceremonies for the World's Fair, it is believed that he was also a member of this delegation (KX T-2 May 6, 1982).

b7C

As indicated above, all correspondents were to have registered with the Communications Department, KIEE, for the opening day of the fair. However, due to extreme crowding, many, many correspondents did not get registered but attended the fair anyway. [] name does not appear in the communication department's records as having registered, but it is assumed that he attended the fair (USPERS #5 May 10, 1982).

On Sunday, May 2, 1982, the group toured various TVA project facilities in the Greater Knoxville area before returning to Washington, D. C. (KX T-2 May 6, 1982).

They were scheduled to depart on May 21 for Horse Cave, Kentucky. The purpose of this travel was indicated as a desire to see life in small town, tourist industry, small farms, tobacco industry, and life in remote areas. This particular visit was arranged by Mr. K. W. Poon and James Ying of the Chinese pavilion at the World's Fair. of [redacted] a prominent New York Chinese businessman. Poon is also acquainted with PRC Officials at the PRC Mission to the astute businessmen, but Poon has been described as not being trustworthy. It is noted that Poon and Ying were involved in the Seattle World's Fair where they had the dubious distinction of getting the best of a local Seattle businessman who had the notorious reputation of taking advantage of everyone he dealt with.

Memo by []

b6
b7C

On Friday, Dec. 10, 1982, when I returned from meeting with [] at 1:09 PM, [] told me that Disney security had just came and photographed her. I asked her what had happened. She said two guests came and purchased one dark embroidered piece which came to $21.00 with tax. [] took the money and wrapped the merchandise and gave the merchandise to the guests. But [] did not ring up the sale on the register. The money was placed by [] on the register ledge directly above the cash drawer. Other guests asked about the umbrellas and [] had at the time gone over to the umbrellas and was demonstrating the umbrellas' mechanisms to the guests. At the time, both girls discovered that the guests who purchased the embroidered piece was having a discussion about not receiving a receipt from the register. These guests backed off and aimed their cameras at the girls to take photographs. [] avoided being photographed by stepping aside. Ten to twenty minutes later, another guests came and purchased something. That was when [] discovered that [] did not ring up the previous twenty dollars sale [] then, at the time of discovery of non-registering, rung up that sale. [] then went to [] and asked [] why [] did not ring up that particular sale. [] said then that she thought that [] had rung up the sale. Forty minutes later, a person came to photograph the girls with a polaroid type camera. That person has his name tag off, but placed in his pocket so that it could be seen vaguely. Ten minutes later, two person came, who also have their name tags off, but could be seen vaguely through the pocket, and asked about the price of the white embroidered pieces. [] therefore reported to [] regarding the possibility that Disney security may have come to photograph them with suspicion that the girls have been dishonest."

On Tuesday, Dec. 14, 1982, early afternoon, I talked to [] about the above incident and asked her to describe to me exactly what had happened on Friday. She said: "You can just put down exactly what [] had told you into your report." I said: "I would like to hear it in your words." She said: "It occurred just like [] had described the incident. No more can be added." I said: "Please go over it once more anyway, since you were the one who accepted the money from the guests.:" She said: "I received the money, and it is I who did not ring up the re-gister, but I thought that [] had rung up the sale. Anyway, you can use [] testimony for your report." I said: "You are all aware of [] incident. In the event we receive Disney's report, things would become much more complicated." She said: "If that ever happens then I will no longer concern myself with who is or is not my friend."

When [] came back from lunch, I spoke with [] I said: "Just what really happened. Please go over the incident with me once more. I need the information ^{for} of/a report to my company." She said: "Money was received by [] The merchandise was wrapped by her also. [] did not ring up the sale. She placed the money on the register ledge directly over the cash drawer. I did not see it at the time. It was until I receive money from the next guest that I discover that the money from the previous sale was not rung up. Photographs were already been taken twice. What bad luck." I said: "[] had ordered that [] be moved away from c register to a different location. Why have you not done that as ordered previously by [] ." She said: "When [] called her to order that [] be moved away from c register [] was off on those days and I thought that [] only wanted [] to be reassigned for just that day." At that time, [] walked over and spoke to [] in Taiwanese. I asked [] to leave us alone for discussions.

I spoke with [] about the incident right after I ended the above conversation with [] I said: " Could you please repeat the incident again so I can clarify the situation for a correct report." [] said: "Would you please change the story which you have just recorded from both my testimony and [] testimony." She further said: "Right after I received the money, I went to B register. [] left later when guests came to ask about the umbrellas." I asked: " What did you mean when you said before that in the event of Disney reports, you will no longer concern yourself with who is or is not my friend?" She replied: " That was only a joke."

After the above conversations, I followed [] requested and threw away the draft of the report. (Version I). When version two was ready, I asked the girls to come and read and sign the/^{ir}report. At the time, [] signed their report. [] read the report and asked for changes, which I made, and then [] signed. Since, However, the changes made their report un-neat and illegible, I made another corrected copy (version III) and both girls signed after being satisfied that [] requested changes have been incorporated.

On Wednesday, Dec.15, 1982, [] came in with a paper in English and asked me to sign it. As I started to read the paper, she took it out of my hands. At that time I told her to give me a photocopy so that I can read the paper, understand it and than I will decide whether if I should sign it.

she will make the photocopy. But she never gave me a copy of it.

On Thursday, Dec. 16, 1982 at about 3:00 to 4:00 PM, I followed [] orders and called [] and asked her to not to report to work on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. I said that [] will be arriving late Saturday and will call her on Sunday to ^{investigate and} clarify this matter.

[] "Wait a minute, my husband is here and wants to speak to you."

[] "I said: 'Yes, I am []' I am []. Why won't you sign my paper?"

[] "What is the story about my []"

[] "You are crazy. I will sue you and [] and Walt Disney World."

I said: "That is okay." [] "I will see you tonight in Kissimmee."

I said: "No. I want to talk to []" I told [] "You belong to our company. Your husband does not belong to our company. [] will arrive late Saturday and will speak with you on Sunday."

I had no conversation with/either [] nor saw [] from above till Thursday, Dec. 23, 1982 when I saw [] around 11:30 talking with [] At that time, since I was off, I made the proper photostats at [] request, and left for home. Thursday, Dec. 23, 82

I was off on Thursdays, but on Dec. 23, 1982, I went to China Pavilion to deliver some keys which was left behind in the dormitory. When I arrived at the China-Pavilion, I was told that [] had called in sick and would be late. I stayed at the Pavilion so that in the event [] does not come to work, I will work her station. However, she arrived when I was having conversations with [] in the break area. I did not talk with her. After I completed my conversations with [] I copied the new schedule and made some photostats & gave to /. Then I left. When I left I saw [] in conversation with []

At no time could I have scolded [] nor could [] have responded by saying: "Don't talk to me that way. I am not []

4 January 1983

I, [redacted] observed the following incident while working at the Chinese pavilion at the EPCOT center on 10 December 1982.

S.N.
At approximately 12:20 P.M. on 10 December 1982, I was helping [redacted] at one of the merchandise tables at the Chinese pavilion. My assigned duties were to help with the sales by wrapping the merchandise while [redacted] of the pavilion; worked at the cash register, registering the sales and handling the money. b6
b7C

At approximately 12:20 P.M. [redacted] rung up a $20.00 sale. When the customer gave [redacted] a fifty dollar bill to pay for this $20.00 sale, [redacted] accidentally rung up a Fifty dollar sale. Of course, this caused an over-ring.

When the customer left, I informed [redacted] that she had accidentally rung up fifty dollars in addition to the sale. She, [redacted] could not believe that she had done such a thing. However, a quick check of the cash drawer convinced her that she had made the fifty dollar over-ring.

[redacted] became very concerned and worried over her mistake as the customer had departed, [redacted] could not get the customer to initial the sales check showing the over-ring. (This procedure was required by [redacted] the supervisor of the Chinese pavilion, when an over-ring occurred). As [redacted] had an over-ring earlier in the day, she was very concerned about telling [redacted] about her second over-ring that day.

When I made additional sales and placed the money on the cash register for [redacted] to ring up, she did not ring up the sales immediately and return a sales slip for the customer. S.N.
From the action I observed, it appeared that [redacted] was making up the over-ring by collecting money from additional sales. When two customers, a man and his wife, delayed their departure from the Chinese pavilion area, [redacted] became excited and immediately punched up the purchase and told me to give the couple their sales slip. b6
b7C

P.N. S.N.
I departed my work area at approximately 07:30 and I did not know at that time whether [redacted] was going to report her over-ring or not. [redacted] worked until approximately 10:30 P.M. and I assumed that she was going to tell her supervisor, [redacted] the complete story about her over-ring and subsequent action. S.N.

AT the time, guest purchased a dark embroidered piece at $20.00 plus tax equal to $21.00 even. The money was received by [redacted] and the merchandise was wrapped by [redacted] also. But she did not ring up the money at the time. She placed the money on the cash register ledge directly above the cash drawer.

[redacted] thought that [redacted] rang up the money and [redacted] thought that [redacted] rang up the money. [redacted] walked towards machine B; [redacted] went over to some guests who were asking about some umbrellas and opened the umbrella to demonstrate the mechanism. At the time, the girls discovered at the time that the guests were having a discussion or argument and wanted to take photos. Later, when a second guest came to purchase something, that was when [redacted] discovered that the twenty dollars sales was not rung up. Upon discovery, [redacted] rung up the previous twenty dollars sale, and placed the money into the register.

Forty minutes later (about), a person came to photograph the girls. Twice, [redacted] avoided the photographer. After a short period, another two persons came to ask about the price of our white embroidered piece. Those two persons have their name tags inside their pocket, but the names tags could be seen vaguely.

Memorandum of Events by []

On Monday, December 13, 1982, [] and I had our telephone call for me to obtain sales report from [] At that time [] reported Friday's Dec. 10, 1982 incident to me.

On Tuesday, Dec. 14, 1982, when [] reported Monday's sales to me, he repeated his report of Friday's incident at my request. In as much as the events were confusing and complicated and that reports over the telephone may be less than clear and complete, I agreed to [] suggestion that we 'paraphrase' Disney's procedure and obtain written reports from the two persons who were involved. I reminded [] that he should make sure that the reports are signed by the two persons after they understand the contents of the report.

b7C

On Tuesday, December 14, 1982, at 12:55 PM, [] called me in New York from his attorney's office in Florida:

[] "Thank you for talking to me. [] This is what happened on Friday. July [] is a scape goat; following [] order, who have just made a $50.00 overring and is just trying to make up [] is innocent of any wrong doing and should not be dismissed and her name should not be damaged. She is a scape goat. I am calling from my attorney's place. [] doesn't know this: [] I do not really know for sure whatever may have happened on Friday. I am going down to Florida end of this week and I will investigate. Meanwhile all I'm getting are stories which do not all make sense. I just want you to know that #1. I like [] And I will try to protect her good name as far as my company's official determination is concerned. But I cannot protect her from a Disney investigation since I have heard that photos were taken by a Disney employee/investigator.

b7C

[] (who started to scream and rave.) " Now you listen to me. I am getting sick and tired of this. [] is a scape goat. [] is the guilty one. You should leave my wife out of this. I am going to sue you, [] your company, Disney. I know what is going on. You are hiring people who do not have green card. You are not obeying the laws. I am going to write to the immigration people. I am going to write to the IRS. I am going to sue all of you. You cannot treat people the way you do.

~~SECRET~~

-2-

[] "Now just one moment, [] Are you through. Now is my turn. I repeat..

b6
b7C

I like your wife. She is not being dismissed. I will make an investigation for my company. But I will not be making Disney's investigation and I cannot influence that investigation and I must abide by that investigation.

[] (interrupting me again) "[] is just a scape goat. Now you are also a scape goat. I will sue you. I will sue all of you. (And then he hung up on me.)

On Wednesday, December 15, 1982, when [] made his sales report, he told me that he too have spoken to [] and have been threatened by [] about being sued. [] also told me that [] is calling everybody in Disney to try to stop further investigation on the photos of this incident which [] claimed was taken by Disney employee/investigators.

Later on Wednesday, December 15, 1982, [] called me in New York. I told her that I like her and that since she have helped me with respect to [] I will put in a good word with my management on her behalf. I also told her that she is not being dismissed by my company pending further investigation. But I do want her to stop muddying up the water with conflicting stories. I asked her to 'stop talking' to anybody until I come down on Saturday. I will start my investigation on Sunday.

b7C

Even later, I had second thoughts about [] ability to kept calm and not further muddying up the water as long as she go to work. So I called [] and asked him to asked [] to stay home on Friday, Saturday and I will call her on Sunday.

I arrived late Saturday in Orlando. On Sunday, I went to the China Pavilion and spoke with [] and [] separately:

[] "What happened on Friday."

[] " I don't know. I was not close to the c register."

[] " I don't know. I was off that day."

I spoke with [] by telephone, who essentially repeated the story with I had heard before from []. However, [] said that [] called and spoke with her husband, who refused to permit [] to take the call, and [] said: " I will sue you." [] husband said: " Okey. Go ahead." (This call was either Sunday or Monday. [] was off on both days and I recall having difficulty getting through by telephone at the start.)

b6
b7C

About noon on Sunday, December 19th, 1982, I called []

[] from the China Pavilion and we made an appointment for 2:00 PM at the EPCOT casting break room. We met at 2:00 PM.

[] " Hello [] Come on in and have a seat. Tell me what happened on Friday."

[] " You have the story in your report."

[] "I have not read the report. And if I can get things settled, I will not read the report. I want to hear the story from you directly and I want to settle this problem. It is getting blown out of proportions. The mole hill has become a mountain and it is my job to bring it down to size again."

[] "Friday morning, I came to work at 11:00 AM and started to work at register c. Some guests purchased some merchandise from [] for a little over twenty dollars, which [] rung on the register, and the guests paid with a fifty dollar traveler check, which amount was also rung up by []. Apparently [] took the travelers check and rung it up as a department item rather than hitting cash/amount key. As a result, there is a fifty dollar overring. [] made the change. I pointed out the error to her, but [] said that there is no error. However, shortly after, [] realized the error and ran after the guests to get the wrong register receipt back for overring cancellation. She brought it back but couldn't get the guest's signature (?). So on the next sale, I tried to help make up for the overring. Unfortunately, those people photographed us. I was able to avoid them by standing behind the red posts. Later other people came to photograph us. They are not really Disney people and I (my husband ?) found out that Disney does not have the photographs.

[] " It is strange that [] would have to worry about an overring when she has the receipt since as [] she can sign the receipt to cancell the overring in conjunction with another ADO or DO. " (I mentioned this point when I heard this version of the story from [] by phone in New York.)

[] " Yes, but [] had another overring that morning and she felt it does not look good for an ADO to make two overrings in one morning. " b6
b7C

[] I see. So you helped a friend. But you forgot me as a friend. You broke the number one company rule about ringing up every sale, and you forgot how your action of not ringing up the sale would affect me and my face and my reputation since I am responsible for this store."

[] " I am sorry."

[] " But anyway. Even before I heard you story, I had gone before our management and have spoken on your behalf about how you spoke up about [] while no one else did about [] dishonesty. Therefore my management have given you a vote of confidence based on my recommendation. But your husband have turned a mole hill into a mountain. He has been calling up everybody in Disney and it looks as if there is going to be a Disney investigation...all caused by your husband. If Disney investigates and found you guilty ...especially since they do not have the same rapport which you and I have because of the [] incident ... then I cannot prevent your dismissal. I have gotten you a vote of confidence from my management. Therefore we will not dismiss you. But according to all the versions of your story, you have broken a very important company rule.. both our company's and Disney's company rule. b6
b7C

[] you are giving me a story. You really want to dismiss me.

[] " No. Inspite of all your faults. I would still ask you to stay..and have gotten management approval to do so. But your husband is the one who made this incident bigger than just a local company matter. If you do not believe that Disney controls many aspects of our China Pavilion operations, I may have a copy of the Disney China Pavilion contract right here..... Here it is:

"Worldco shall have the right to .. recommend the removal of from employment at the Attraction of any employee of Participant who does not perform to the satisfaction of Worldco, with which recommendations Participant shall comply." b6 b7C

[] " So what can be done now."

[] " Since it is your husband's main concern that [] is a proud name.. and I will not be a husband if I do not fight with everything I have when my wife's reputation is questioned.' therefore having gotten my company's vote of confidence, you have gotten your reputation back for now, but you many lose it , or at least spend a lot of time defending it, in the event of a Disney investigation, precipitated by your husband's many telephone calls. So I have a suggestion. Resign while you have our management's vote of confidence. This should close the file inspite of your husband's actions. Meanwhile, I will personally write you a check for $500 to cover your income for a month.. just to show that I have and am still standing up for you.

[] "I don't want your money. I just want to know that you are not dismissing me.

[] " You are not being dismissed. I am just trying to reduce the fiasco created by your husband to a manageable size so we can all sit down and solve it. In fact, just to show that you are not being dismissed by our company, if you wish I will try to get you a transfer to another branch in New York.

[] " Well that is not bad. I have never been to New York. But isn't it cold up there?

b6
b7C

[] " Well, just let me know, and I will save your reputation and try to reduce the mess caused by your husband.

[] " I must talk to my husband."

[] " Okey. Could you please call him from here? Here is a dime."

[] "No. I will not take anything from you."

[] upon returning from the phone call: "My husband start to get very excited, but I told him to calm down and think about this. So he said for you to call him tomorrow after 4:30 PM."

[] "I will talk with him only under his promise not to scream at me."

[] "Don't worry. He will not scream at you."

b6
b7C

On Monday, December 20, 1982, about 5:00PM I called [] We spoke for almost two hours and the conversation was constructive. I told [] that if it wasn't his effort to involve Disney by his many phone calls, my efforts in obtaining a vote of confidence for [] would have practically ended the incident and [] could have gone back to work. But because of his actions, he has 'let the genie out of the bottle' and now he would have to call back all the Disney Executives and try to 'return the genie into the bottle' by explaining that all his threats are now retracted and that all his bad-mouthing are the acts of an excited husband perpetrating malicious rumors. [] agreed to do as according to my suggestion and I was to call him on Tuesday after 4:30PM to see if we could mutually solve the problem. Certain comments which I still recall from the conversation are:

b6
b7C

[] "When [] stole from the company, my wife came home and made the comment that if it is that easy for [] to steal, then she could just as easily do the same. But I told her in no uncertain terms that under no condition should she ever steal even a single penny from the company."

[] "Many folks here are unhappy with Disney, but not me. If they can do business and provide employment here .. it's the American way."

b6
b7C

[] "You could have stopped my whole process of writing letters to immigration, IRS, calling Disney, if you only did not tell [] not to come to work on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday."

[] "That was for her own good. Between you and your wife, you could have spoken to the whole world and muddled up the water so much that I could not make heads nor tail when I investigate, nor could I speak favorably on [] behalf to my management if constantly new versions of the story is spread around. So I had your wife stay home to keep her from letting more 'genies' out of the bottle until even I could not help her clear up the mess without a full fledged investigation.

b6
b7C

[] " Every time she talks, new rumors spread. And rumors are always destructive. In fact, when I was running an operation in New York, I had a standing order that any one spreads rumors in the company will be fired.

[] " We are both trying to protect [] reputation and emotions. Any investigation, even when a person is innocent, is trying. I am trying to eliminate the needs for such a full fledged investigation. So if you [] can call all those whom you have previously called in Disney and retract all your threats and rumors, and also you and your wife stop from calling more people in Disney and further spreading the threats and rumors, then there is a chance that a big problem can be turned into a little problem while a little problem can be solved easily'.

On Tuesday, December 21, 1982, I called [] again and explained that I will be meeting with [] the next day. Meanwhile, I inquired as to whether if he [] has 'put all the genies back into the bottle'. He said: " Most of the genies. There are still one or two which I would have to call tomorrow." I told him that I will call him tomorrow after my meeting with [] and after I consult my management.

b7C

On Wednesday, December 22, 1982, I had a good meeting with [] [] et al at 2:00 PM. That evening I call [] and told him that we I would like a letter from him to the effect that he retract all threats and rumors. I further told him that his wife can report to work tomorrow (Thursday) at 11:00 A.M. [] said: " Thank you [] "

On Thursday, December 23, 1982, I arrived at China Pavilion before 11:00 AM in order to have an opportunity to review company policies with

[] so that she will not repeat her previous error. She was late. I called her husband to make sure that nothing is the matter. Her husband said that she had left on time and should be arriving any moment now. After I hung up the phone, I found that [] has arrived and was working at her station by register A. I first had a meeting with [] regarding scheduling. About 11:30 AM I had a meeting with [] and went through the company policy in Chinese. I further told her to follow those policies and I will let bygones be bygones. She went back to her station and I left for my next appointment.

About 2:00 PM that same day, I returned to the China Pavilion and found [] looking sad. She asked me whether if I have been inquiring about her trustworthiness from her co-workers. I said: No. I did, however, asked two persons 'What happened on Friday' and obtained two 'I do not know' answers. I also told her not to listen to rumors. She will never be happy if she listens to and believes in rumors. She went back to her station and I went back to my appointments.

On Friday, December 24, 1982, I arrive at China Pavilion about 2:00PM to pick up the van to go to the airport for a shipment. I was told that [] did not report for work, but her husband called in the morning and asked that I call him back. After I returned back from the airport, I call [] [] said that his wife returned in tears back from work and that he [] spent many hours and finally persuaded [] to agree to resign and not come back to work in the China Pavilion. He said that [] overheard a retort by [] when scolded by [] "You cannot push me around. I am not []" He also claimed that [] overheard [] telling [] "You Taiwanese are not productive and you will never be promoted." This is why [] was in tears and which led to her son being in tears and [] said that "He would not be a husband nor a father to let this happen with/doing everything in his power to fight." So he is going to call Disney Executives, write IRS, write immigration, sue []

~~SECRET~~

---9---

sue Disney.

I offered to give a Christmas speech at the party that evening; he and his wife are invited; and during that speech, I will make it known that all matters have been cleared regarding [] and our company with reference to this incident and that [] has been reinstated. This way [] will be getting her 'face' back, and also will receive less peer disapproval in the future. [] refused my offer.

b6

Then I offered to re-align my appointments and work with [] at a station for several days, and my actions toward [] during those several days should telegraph the feelings that our management have given [] a vote of full confidence, which should again help [] solve her peer disapproval problem. This was also refused by []

So I had no choice but to accept [] resignation. [] ended the conversation by saying that he will do everything in his power to 'punish' those who are involved. He will sue Disney [] company, [] But he will not sue me.

Other comments which was made during this long conversation include:

[] "...A lot of folks here do not like Disney. ..Years ago I can leave my house unlocked..but now there are bad elements around here due to Disney (?)

b6
b7C

[] " Disney mistreats their employees and so do all the other nations (?) pavilions (?) except Japan and so do many other restaurant and grocers in the area.

[] " ~~My~~ My friend in Disney reported back to me that you called me a excited ~~husband~~ idiot spreading rumors...."

[] I called you an excited husbandI did not use the word idiot at all."

On Monday, December 27, 1982, the above was reported to Disney. to [] office.

On 3/27/83, writer and his family visited "EPCOT" in Orlando, Florida. While in China pavilion, writer met with a [redacted] and [redacted], both of them were from Shanghai, China, and had immigrated to the U. S. about one year ago, along with their children. They advised that they learned about this job, sales staff in China pavilion, through the advertisements in Chinese newspapers. The China pavilion is leased by a [redacted] from New York and all the staff working in the pavilion were hired in the U. S. There is no one from the PRC government working there. (That is, apparently no non-immigrants. They are all immigrants/green card holders).

After talking with them for half an hour or so, writer gathered that they suffered a lot during the "Culture Revolution" and dislike the communist government. Writer, during course of conversation, identified himself and gave them a business card. They were surprised but were not frightened. As a matter of fact, they were pleased to meet with the writer. Writer advised them that a friend of his (writer's) is working in Orlando Office. [redacted] speaks Russian.

Writer also met with a [redacted] working in the pavilion who claimed that he speaks six languages including Russian, Japanese, Spanish, German, and French.

On 3/28/83, writer visited the China pavilion again and engaged in conversation with two other staff members, one man named [redacted] who immigrated here from Laos and one female, name unknown, who was from Taiwan and whose husband is a civilian employee with the U. S. Army. They reside in Orlando area. Both of them claimed that there are no PRC nationals presently at the China pavilion.

WHY CHINA FRIENDSHIP?

China, with nearly one-quarter of the world's population, has emerged as a nation that plays a significant role in world affairs. As a developing nation it has made great progress in improving the quality of life for its 950 million people. Gone are the days when famine, disease, and opium addiction took their annual toll of one million lives. Visiting Americans are impressed with improvements in the health, education, and social services available to the Chinese citizen. Recently, China has embarked upon an ambitious program to reach the level of the most advanced industrial nations. Its aim is to modernize agriculture, industry, science and technology, and its defense forces by the end of the century.

With the realization of full diplomatic relations between the governments of the US and China in 1979, the opportunities for the American and Chinese people to learn from one another have improved significantly. Cultural, scientific, educational, medical and technological exchanges, which are of great value to both countries, are expanding rapidly. The US-China Peoples Friendship Association participates actively in these exchanges.

Hosting visiting Chinese scholars always a pleasant responsibility.

WHO WE ARE

The US-China Peoples Friendship Association (USCPFA) is a non-profit, tax-exempt, educational organization. Our goal is to develop and strengthen friendship and understanding between the people of the United States and the People's Republic of China. We are Americans of different viewpoints, from all walks of life, working in local chapters across the mainland and Hawaii. Founded as a national organization in 1974, USCPFA comprises four regions (East, Midwest, South, and West) with over 8000 volunteer members in more than 100 affiliated chapters and organizing committees.

USCPFA is organized around National and Regional Centers which assist local chapters with coordination and resources. National policies are established by the membership, which meets biannually for a national convention. A National Board, elected by the membership, implements national policy.

USCPFA is financed by membership dues, individual donations, local fundraising activities, grants and study tours to China. The Association is non-political and non-partisan.

WHAT WE DO

USCPFA offers activities and educational programs on various aspects of Chinese life and society for organizations, neighborhood groups, schools, churches, labor unions and social clubs. The following are some of our programs and services; information on these services is available from the USCPFA National Office.

Educational Tours to China

USCPFA has the longest experience of any American organization in sending study tours to China. Since 1972, more than 10,000 Americans have visited China under USCPFA auspices. Our purpose is to assist both Americans and Chinese in learning from each other and to strengthen the bonds of friendship through personal contact, which often continues through correspondence. Our broad contacts in China make it possible for USCPFA to offer special features for professional or special interest groups. Volunteer USCPFA tour leaders, carefully selected and trained, bring a thorough knowledge of China to each tour participant. Reading materials are provided well in advance of the tour. A one-day orientation program prior to departure includes films and speakers on Chinese history, culture, and daily life.

Exchanges

USCPFA sponsors cultural exhibitions from China, student exchanges, book exchanges, a Friendship Schools program, and other activities to help educate people of the US about contemporary life in China. In addition, we assist other organizations and institutions in the US arranging exchanges with China.

Speakers

We sponsor knowledgeable speakers who tour the US to share their insight on developments in China. Included are American residents of China and well-known experts on various aspects of Chinese affairs and US-China relations. Local chapters frequently present lectures, seminars and slide presentations on contemporary China, schools, in university classes, and at the programs of many organizations.

Literature

USCPFA produces a variety of material on China: book pamphlets, and reprints of important articles on such topics as US-China relations, Chinese health care systems, and China's minorities. The national organization publishes US-China Review, a bi-monthly magazine of China and US-China relations. Many chapters provide newsletters on local activities. A complete selection of books about China and Chinese English-language periodicals are available for purchase, and thousands have been donated free to public and school libraries throughout the US.

Films

Films from and about China, including documentaries, dramas, operas and ballets, are distributed by USCPFA.

An Introduction

WHY CHINA FRIENDSHIP?

China, with nearly one-quarter of the world's population, has emerged as a nation that plays a significant role in world affairs. As a developing nation it has made great progress in improving the quality of life for its 950 million people. Gone are the days when famine, disease, and opium addiction took their annual toll of one million lives. Visiting Americans are impressed with improvements in the health, education, and social services available to the Chinese citizen. Recently, China has embarked upon an ambitious program to reach the level of the most advanced industrial nations. Its aim is to modernize agriculture, industry, science and technology; and its defense forces by the end of the century.

With the realization of full diplomatic relations between the governments of the US and China in 1979, the opportunities for the American and Chinese people to learn from one another have improved significantly. Cultural, scientific, educational, medical and technological exchanges, which are of great value to both countries, are expanding rapidly. The US-China Peoples Friendship Association participates actively in these exchanges.

WHO WE ARE

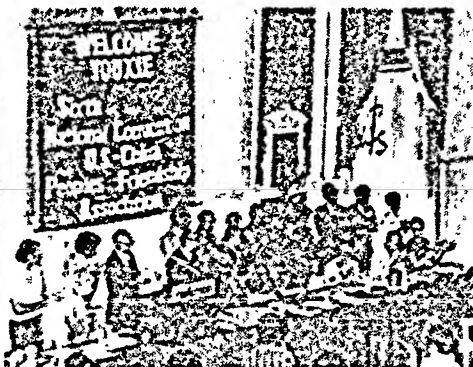

The US-China Peoples Friendship Association (USCPFA) is a non-profit, tax-exempt, educational organization. Our goal is to develop and strengthen friendship and understanding between the people of the United States and the People's Republic of China. We are Americans of different viewpoints, from all walks of life, working in local chapters across the mainland and Hawaii. Founded as a national organization in 1974, USCPFA comprises four regions (East, Midwest, South, and West) with over 8000 volunteer members in more than 100 affiliated chapters and organizing committees.

USCPFA is organized around National and Regional Centers which assist local chapters with coordination and resources. National policies are established by the membership, which meets biannually for a national convention. A National Board, elected by the membership, implements national policy.

USCPFA is financed by membership dues, individual donations, local fundraising activities, grants and study tours to China. The Association is non-political and non-partisan.

WHAT WE DO

USCPFA offers activities and educational programs on various aspects of Chinese life and society for organizations, neighborhood groups, schools, churches, labor unions and social clubs. The following are some of our programs and services; information on these services is available from the USCPFA National Office.

Educational Tours to China

USCPFA has the longest experience of any American organization in sending study tours to China. Since 1972, more than 10,000 Americans have visited China under USCPFA auspices. Our purpose is to assist both Americans and Chinese in learning from each other and to strengthen the bonds of friendship through personal contact, which often continues through correspondence. Our broad contacts in China make it possible for USCPFA to offer special features for professional or special interest groups. Volunteer USCPFA tour leaders, carefully selected and trained, bring a thorough knowledge of China to each tour participant. Reading materials are provided well in advance of the tour. A one-day orientation program prior to departure includes films and speakers on Chinese history, culture and daily life.

Exchanges

USCPFA sponsors cultural exhibitions from China, student exchanges, book exchanges, a Friendship Schools program, and other activities to help educate people of the US about contemporary life in China. In addition, we assist other organizations and institutions in the US in arranging exchanges with China.

Speakers

We sponsor knowledgeable speakers who tour the US to share their insight on developments in China. Included are American residents of China and well-known experts on various aspects of Chinese affairs and US-China relations. Local chapters frequently present lectures, seminars and slide presentations on contemporary China at schools, in university classes, and at the programs of many organizations.

Literature

USCPFA produces a variety of material on China: books, pamphlets, and reprints of important articles on such topics as US-China relations, Chinese health care systems, and China's minorities. The national organization publishes US-China Review, a bi-monthly magazine on China and US-China relations. Many chapters provide newsletters on local activities. A complete selection of books about China and Chinese English-language periodicals are available for purchase, and thousands have been donated free to public and school libraries throughout the US.

Films

Films from and about China, including documentaries, dramas, operas and ballets, are distributed by USCPFA.
